The Card Party.

"Hello, Billy, where are you a goin' to?"
"To the party."
"What kind of a party, Bill?"
"A card party. I believe the gents call it a progressive party."
"What do they do, Bill?"
"They play cards and uker."
"How long do you stay, Billy?"
"Party nearly all night."
"Do you like it?"
"You bet. There's lots of fun."
"How do they have fun, Billy?"
"Well, you see, they cheat."
"How do they cheat?"
"Well, sometimes they get more cards than they are to have, and the gents will stick the cards under the boys' coat and the boys try to do just like the gents, and it tickles me nearly to death. Oh, I'd go every night if there were more nights."
"Say, Billy, ain't you afraid the Bad Man will get you?"
"No, sir, he likes it too well himself to let us quit. The gents say it is a fine game to play and the boys say the girls know. The boys will go party nearly anywhere the gents go, and when the boys live their cigarettes the gents won't leave 'em. Sometimes we play 'possum hunting. We get in a wagon and make the 'possums fly and when the 'possums is all scared in their holes, then we take lunch and go home and eat 'possum all night."

"A Friend" Ails Bro. Smart's Theological Teachings.

Some men are naturally "Smart." They are not responsible for their "Smartness"—they were born that way. Their fathers before them were no doubt "Smart." Some of them, of course, may be a little bit "Smarter" than others. However that may be, one of the "Smartest" of that prodigy has worked himself into the columns of a recent issue of the PRESS and by various "Smart" tactics undertakes to prove the soundness of his theological views. He signs it up, "M. C. Smart." "M. C.", according to the dictionary, means Member of Congress.

Bro. Smart undertakes to teach that apostasy is the one doctrine taught in the Bible. There are, it is said, in the city of New York 37,000 women who are supporting their husbands—worthless fellows, no good to themselves, their families, their country or to God. These, it is reasonable to presume, are disciples of John Wesley who have fallen from grace. Unlike Jonathan's gourd vine, they have not withered under God's word, but from a false understanding as to what the Bible teaches, they have lost confidence in everything pertaining to this world or the world to come.

Now, is it possible that God, who was able to speak this world into existence, is such a poor old fellow that he is compelled to make five or six trials before he can save a man's soul? It is true the Bible contains scripture in the way of warnings, but are these warnings placed in the Bible to teach that a Christian may lose his religion and be lost? We deny it. There are in the church three classes of members, the true Christian, the self-deceived and the hypocrite. Now if the Bible failed to contain matter adapted to the wants and necessities of these three classes, it would fail to meet the wants of the church. It must have encouragements, admonitions and threatenings, else the christian could not be developed, the self-deceived could not be awakened, nor the hypocrite aroused. These warnings, etc., must be general, so as to give each class needful help. In Kentucky we have citizens of different kinds, just as we have in the church. We have members of different classes but the enactments of our civil code are general. Must be so. The warnings and threatenings are addressed to all citizens alike, telling the penalties for theft, for house burning, etc. They say to the honest man, if you steal you will be punished; and to the upright citizen, if you burn your neighbor's house you shall be put in the penitentiary. Now what could be the answer of these men? Certainly they they would admit that the laws are just and good. But can we say these laws were enacted for this class of men? Not at all. Bro. Smart might say good men commit crimes and sin. If you mean spiritually good men I deny it. Men who do such things have a flaw somewhere, and are not good. They have failed to get to get a good weld and, like a piece of iron when put to the test, they pull apart, break. When a man is welded into Christ and Christ into him, the gates of hell—the devil and the Methodist preachers—can not pull them apart.

The Bible is literally full of negative assertions that the truly regenerated soul will be saved. "If you have doubts, turn to John 4:13-14, 5:24, 1 Cor. 10:13, John 10:11, Rom. 8:35-39, and a hundred more if necessary. We have positive proof from the Bible that many of the righteous are in heaven, and many who have been partially welded, as they believe or want to believe, are in hell. But no man can say, on the authority of the Bible, that a truly regenerated person ever went to hell.

I have written this article, Bro. Smart, trusting your fears may be mollified and that we, as Christians, may cease to hold the devil between us and God's word.

A FRIEND, Blackford, Ky.

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

We publish our formulae. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach. A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The highest medical authority on foods,

Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.—F.R.S. of London, gives the best reasons for eating more

Quaker Oats

In an article published in the Youth's Companion of September 23rd, 1899, Dr. Browne, the great medical authority on foods, says, about brain and muscle building—

"There is one kind of food that seems to me of marked value as a food to the brain and to the whole body throughout childhood and adolescence (youth), and that is oatmeal."

"Oats are the most nutritious of all the cereals, being richer in fats, organic phosphorus and lecithins."

He says oatmeal is gaining ground with the well-to-do of Great Britain. He speaks of it as the mainstay of the Scottish laborer's diet and says it produces a big-boned, well-developed, mentally energetic race. His experiments prove that good oatmeal such as Quaker Oats not only furnishes the best food for the human being, but eating it strengthens and enlarges the thyroid gland—this gland is intimately connected with the nourishing processes of the body.

In conclusion he says—"It seems probable therefore that the bulk and brawniness of the Northerners (meaning the Scotch) has been in some measure due to the stimulation of the thyroid gland by oatmeal porridge in childhood."

The Scotch eat Quaker Oats because it is the best of all oatmeals.
